The following persons whose names were left out of last week's issue of the Star contributed to Rev. Kersh out of respect to him for his faithfulness as pastor:
Rev. C. L. Netherland $1.00
Mr. Geo. Blakley, 50 cts., Mrs. R. Johnson.

All theatre goes now have an opportunity to patronize a first-class show, conducted in an orderly manner. The GEM, owned by Messrs. Carter and Williams, is now open and running nightly. They employ all Negroes from the janitor to the machine operator.

For a first-class Sunday dinner, be sure to go the Peoples Cafe, 29 N. Boston. Turkey, Ice-Cream and all the best things in the market included in this Sunday dinner. Everybody invited, and gentle service given to every customer.

One night last week some unknown person shot, either purposely or accidentally, into the home of Mr. James Irwin, who lives in Sand Springs. The stray bullet struck Mr. Irwin's seven year old child, going through both hands. It is to be hoped that the wound will not prove serious.

Presiding Elder, Dr. T. W. Kidd delivered last Sunday morning at Vernon Chapel, one of the most wholesome, thoughtful sermon we have listened to lately, subject: "The power of thought." The subject was handled in a most convincing and masterly manner and proved the Dr. a close student.

Why have KINKY hair when "PRESTO" will make the necessary improvement? See ad in this paper.

H. D. Evans a prominent society man of this city has decided to go into the restaurant business again. With this in view he has purchased the Morgau place in the Martin building on the cor. of North Greenwood and Brady where he and his wife will conduct a first class cafe. The new place will open Monday.

The Quarterly meeting at Vernon chapel last Sunday was well attended and proved to be a spiritual and financial blessing both to the church and pastors. Dr. Johnson is a christian leader of pronounced ability and is leading his people on to glory and success. A rally is now on hand to raise money to place new pews in the church.

G. W. F. Sawner, of Chandler, who holds the distinction of being the leading Negro cotton buyer of the state, as well as the first Negro in Okla. to launch out into buying cotton upon his own responsibility is one of the most active makers for the success of the Business Men's League, and was very much in evidence at the meeting Thursday.

AMONG HOTEL PEOPLE

Gurley's Hotel was headquarters for the delegates to the Business Men's League and those who stopped there were very much pleased with the cleanliness, order and convenience of that well-known hostelry, which has been one of the landmarks of the later-day progress of the Negro section of Tulsa.

Tom Gentry took especial pains to make the stay in Tulsa pleasant for the visiting delegates, and his Gentry Apartments proved an ideal place for the visitor who sought "comforts like home."

When in town call at A. Carr's place, in the Gurley Building for something good to eat.

New And Up-to-date Rooming Apartments

Mrs. Lena Charleston and mother, Mrs. Larry Davis, late of Pine Bluff, Ark. have purchased a neat, up-to-date house at 520 N. Elgin.

Mrs. Charleston has lived in Tulsa about one year and has made good. The Star circulation manager, J. S. Kirby, has known Mrs. Charleston for 25 years. O. W. Gurley of this city has known her 30 years. It is said that Mrs. Charleston's property in Arkansas is worth from $8000.00 to $10,000.00. She is an excellent hotel manager and her rooming house in this city is one of the most complete and up-to-date in Tulsa.

Located at 518 North Elgin. Too much credit cannot be given a woman of our race possessed of her tact and ability.

Baptists Hold Anniversary Celebration

The anniversary of the Pastor at the 1st Baptist last week was a success. The weather turned bad, but the people seemed to appreciate the exercises. Many good papers were read in respect to the Pastor and his work for the past year. And many speeches were made. Hon. Archie Jones, Atty. Mrs. Lucy Callins, Mrs. C. W. Hunt, Mrs. Irene Johnson, Mrs. C. M. Westley and Mr. R. H. Middleton all strong and good papers. Hon. Chas. Jackson, Hon. H. A. Gause, Atty. Mr. J. H. Wells, Rev. L. McGregor, Mr. Ellis, Mr. Campbell, Mrs. Julia Jackson, Prof. Graham and Mr. A. J. Smitherman all made good speeches. There were others on the program had it not been for inclement weather, would have produced papers that have been as interesting as any of those read.

Sunday morning the Sec. Baptist Sunday School rallied against the First Baptist Sunday School. The banner was the prize for which they were rallying. Both schools rallied with all their forces and quite a deal of interest was manifested on both sides. But when the smoke of battle had cleared away, the First Baptist had won the prize. Cheer after cheer went up. It was hard to get order. The votes were as follows: First Baptist $22.74. Second Baptist $11.06. The Second Baptist then retired to their church for 11 o'clock service, headed by their Pastor.

Rev. McMillan, State Evangelist, preached a strong sermon at 11 o'clock. Rev. McMillan is as strong a preacher as there is in the state. At 2 p. m. Dr. White was back on the scene to preach the anniversary sermon for the Pastor. After some excellent singing and music by the Zion choir, Dr. White made a choice for subject, "A wise choice." He preached a powerful sermon. Every body was well pleased with the sermon.

At night the pastor preached. His subject was "Live a Better Life For Christ."

Everybody seemed to be well pleased with the entire exercises.

Money raised from all sources $92.26. The members and friends donated to the Pastor as follows: Mr. Capt. Jackson, $2.50; Dr. A. C. Jackson and wife $2.50; M. and Mrs. L. H. Holderness, $1; Mrs. Charles F. H. son $1; Mrs. S. F. Smart $1; Miss Ava Hale 50c; Rev. H. M. McMillan 25c; Rev. C. E. Bailey 25c; Miss Bertha Hale 25c; Mrs. Hannah Hale 25c; Mrs. Lucy Walker 25c; Mr. John Vaughn 25c; Mrs. Fannie Butler 50c; Deacon G. W. Middleton 25c; Miss Laura Mills 25c; Miss Savannah Camphell 10c; Mr. J. H. Hollingsworth 10c; Mr. R. L. Quinn 25c; Mrs. F. C. Smith 25c; Deacon R. Huff 25c; Mrs. F. K. White 50c; Mrs. F. Wright 25c; Mrs. Everline Jones 25c; Mr. Ellis 25c; Mrs. Ada Rouse 25c; Dr. F. K. White 50c; Miss Ethel Jackson $1; Miss Mattie Adams 25c; Mrs. Beatrice George 25c; Mrs. Annie L. Warren 25c; Mrs. Ethel Billings 25c; Mr. R. H. Middleton 25c; Mrs. Olivia King $1; Mrs. D. L. Whitlow 25c; Mrs. G. W. Hunt 75c; Mrs. M. J. Mitchell 50c; Mr. H. Hale 25c; Mrs. Louisa Welch 25c; Mrs. Mattie Z. Fuller $1; Mrs. Lena Anderson 50c; Prof. H. E. Graham 25c.

The Pastor Rev. J. F. Kersh, is all smiles today for the high respect in which his members and many friends esteem him. And for the liberal donation by them.

The Church and community cannot esteem the minister too highly; the worth of the minister to any community, is beyond calculation. Dr. Kersh has proven himself worthy of the position he holds in his church and the community. He supports all Negro enterprises, and is a staunch race man. He has battled hard against vice and immorality ever since he has been here. His life has been and is a living example for any one who wishes to live on up right life.

On Monday night many of the members and friends served a repast at the Parsonage in honor of the Pastor and his wife.

B. F. COLLEY.

The above is the likeness of Bob Rogers, manager of the People's Theatre, who has done much to popularize the vaudeville business in Tulsa.

Mr. Rogers is surpassing any of his predecessors in the business here in giving his patrons high-class entertainment, both in the picture features and in vaudeville.

Mrs. Rogers, his wife, who, he admits, is the life of the business, with her smiles and kindness is ever ready to note the pleasure and displeasure of their patrons, and this accounts for their continued success.
